

CITY OF LODI

COUNCIL COMMUNICATION

AGENDA TITLE: Public Hearing to consider the Planning Commission's recommendation to adopt the rezone and General Plan amendment for 319, 323, 327, 331, 335, 339, 343, 346, 347, & 351 North Stockton Street; 116 East Lawrence Avenue; also 320 and the residentially zoned portion of 353 North Washington Street. The rezone would be from R-1*, Single-Family Residential (Eastside) to R-MD, Residential Medium Density, and R-1* to PUB, Public and also for approval of a General Plan amendment from LI, Light Industrial to MDR, Medium Density Residential and PQP, Public Quasi Public to MDR.

MEETING DATE: December 18, 1996

PREPARED BY: Community Development Director

RECOMMENDED ACTION: That the City Council approve the Planning Commission's recommendation to adopt a rezone and General Plan amendment for the above stated properties.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: This is a request for a rezone and General Plan amendment to increase the allowable density on the properties listed above. In order to accomplish this, the City must rezone the area from R-1*, Single-Family Residential (Eastside) to R-MD, Residential Medium Density. The City must also amend the General Plan to change the land use designation of the area from LI, Light Industrial to MDR, Medium Density Residential. As part of this rezone and General Plan amendment, staff has taken the opportunity to amend a General Plan land use inconsistency and two zoning inconsistencies. The project area consists of 13 properties averaging approximately 7000 square feet in size. Each of the 13 properties is currently developed with residential or public uses.

The applicant for this project initiated the zoning change for 335 North Stockton Street because the property has little value with its existing 500 square foot home, and because it is adjacent to a 5 unit apartment to the south and multi-units to the north. The owner of the property wishes to make improvements; however, he feels this is not feasible for him to do so as a single home. The applicant believes that changing the zoning to allow for a higher density will make an investment in his property feasible and improve its existing condition.

Because it is not legal for the City to rezone a single property, staff chose to rezone all the residential properties fronting North Stockton Street between Lawrence Avenue on the north and the east/west alley north of East Lockeford Street. Each of the properties of the project area is either in a similar situation to the applicant's or already has more than one dwelling unit.

The properties of the proposed General Plan amendment and rezone consist of approximately 2 acres, are within the City Limits, and are fully developed as housing or public uses. The majority of the project area is zoned R-1*, Single-Family Residential (Eastside) which allows for one home to be built on each property. The current General Plan land use designation for the homes of the project area is LI, Light Industrial which is an inconsistency. Of the 13 properties in the project area 2 are public buildings, 5 have more than one residential unit, and the remaining 6 have a single residential unit. According to these figures, approximately half of the structures in the project area are inconsistent with the current residential single-family zoning, and all of the structures are inconsistent with their current light industrial General Plan land use designation.

The following is a breakdown of the existing land uses in the project area: The housing includes 6 single-family homes, 1 duplex, two single units on each of three properties, and one 5 unit apartment. The public uses include the Armory/National Guard Building and the American Legion Memorial Building. The project site is bordered on the south by housing, industrial properties, and a parking lot for the Armory/National Guard Building; bordered on the west across an alley by industrial uses; bordered on the north across Lawrence Avenue by the City's softball complex and Grape Bowl; and bordered on the east by Lawrence Park and the American Legion Memorial Building (see maps).

The General Plan amendment will change the land use designation for 12 of the properties from LI, Light Industrial to MDR, Medium Density Residential, and one of the properties (346 North Stockton Street) from PQP, Public Quasi-Public, to MDR. The General Plan amendment to redesignate 346 North Stockton Street from PQP to MDR is necessary because the property is zoned residential, has an existing single-family residence on it, and is not a public property.

Rezoning the project area will change the zoning for the 11 residential properties from R-1*, Single-Family Residence (Eastside) to R-MD, Residential Medium Density, and the remaining two public properties (320 and a portion of 353 North Washington Street) to PUB, Public. The Rezone to PUB is necessary because the properties exist as public uses with no residences upon them. This zoning is consistent with other similar public uses.

The proposed General Plan designation of MDR allows for a maximum residential density of no more than 20 units per acre. In order to maintain consistency with the proposed General Plan designation, and to meet the needs of this request, Staff chose R-MD zoning. Using the R-MD zoning standards, the six project area properties with only one dwelling unit, could potentially add one or two additional units.

Staff is aware that there are some concerns from members of the public that believe we should maintain all residential development in the east Lodi area as single family homes. We would agree that maintaining single family development makes sense in areas that are predominantly single family and surrounded by single family; however, the project area is not. It contains 13 properties which are surrounded by public and industrial uses, and only 6 of the properties actually have a single family residence upon it.

Staff feels that the existing development and the surrounding land uses are not conducive to maintaining a single family neighborhood. We further believe that providing reasonable investment into the area is beneficial for the neighborhood. Therefore, the applicants request is warranted based on these points.

The Planning Commission held a public hearing on this matter on September 9, 1996. The applicant, property owner and a neighboring owner spoke in favor of the request with no opposition present. The Planning Commission voted to recommend that the City Council approve the request as outlined.

Tentative Map 96 P 002, request of Baumbach & Piazza, on behalf of the Dunscombe Family, for approval to create two (2) parcels from two (2) existing parcels at 2247 and 2249 West Kettleman Lane. Eric Veerkamp, Associate Planner, presented this matter to the Planning Commission. Mr. Veerkamp explained that the Dunscombe property contained a total of 5.89 acres and was currently divided into two parcels. One small parcel fronted on Kettleman Lane and contained the Dunscombe residence and surrounding yard. The second parcel contained the remaining 5+ acres of the property. The applicants were requesting to resubdivide the property into two new parcels that would match the proposed alignment of Tienda Drive. Parcel one would be located north of the alignment of Tienda Drive, while parcel 2 would be located south of Tienda Drive and would front on Kettleman Lane. TENTATIVE

There is a proposal to sell parcel one to the City of Lodi. The City would combine this parcel with an adjoining parcel to the east to create Roget Park which will become a passive use City park. The southern parcel which has a zoning of RCP, and contains the existing Dunscombe residence, will probably be sold and developed with some type of RCP use in the future. The Commission asked about the development of the segment of Tienda Drive which crosses this property. Community Development Director Bartlam explained that this segment of Tienda Drive will be constructed when surrounding properties develop and there is need to provide access to the area.

Mark Meissner, Associate Planner, presented this matter to the Planning Commission. Mr. Meissner explained that Mr. Fletcher had requested that the City rezone the property at 335 N. Stockton Street from R-1 Eastside to Residential Medium Density in order that he could construct a second residential unit on this property. Currently, the property contains a small single-family house. Mr. Meissner explained that under the R-1 Eastside zoning, lots were only allowed to have a single-family residence, or whatever number of units existed, at the time the R-1 Eastside was implemented back in the late 80's. Mr. Meissner went on to explain that ten residential lots on North Stockton Street, were an island of R-1 Eastside zonings surrounding by either industrial or public uses. The properties to the east along Main Street were a mixture of residential commercial and industrial uses. The properties to the south were primarily residential, although they were zoned M-2, Heavy Industrial. The properties to the east and north were primarily public uses and included the City softball complex, the Grape Bowl, the National Guard Armory, and the American Legion Building. Because of the surrounding uses and the inconsistencies between the zoning and existing uses, City staff decided to include all of the R-1 Eastside properties in this area as part of the proposed General Plan amendment and rezoning.

Staff was recommending that the properties on both sides of Stockton Street, beginning at 319 N. Stockton Street and ending at 351 N. Stockton Street be rezoned from R-1 Eastside to Residential Medium Density. This would allow the properties to be developed with duplexes and perhaps triplexes depending on the size of the lot and the existing structures. The public properties, which include the National Guard Armory Building and the American Legion Building, would be rezoned from R-1 Eastside to Public, to more accurately reflect their actual uses. The General Plan would also be amended to reflect the proposed zoning. Staff felt that permitting property owners to add an additional unit onto their properties would be appropriate given the size of the parcels and the mixtures of uses found in the surrounding neighborhood.

Mr. Meissner then showed slides of the area to the Planning Commission. The Commission asked about the ownership pattern in this area. Staff explained, that as far as they could determine, only two of the properties were owner-occupied and the rest were being used as rentals. Additionally, Mr. Fletcher only owned one of the properties; however, the City included additional properties to make the proposal more logical and to avoid creating a "spot zone."

Vice Chairman Rasmussen then opened the floor for public comment. Coming forward to speak was Mitch Fletcher of Fletcher Development. Mr. Fletcher explained that he was the applicant for the proposal and was planning to construct a duplex on the property at 335 N. Stockton Street for the property owner. The duplex would have access both from Stockton Street and from the alley and would have ample room on the property to accommodate the two uses. He also noted that the property immediately to the south of him contained two units and the property to the north contained a 5-unit apartment building. He asked the Planning Commission for their approval of his request.

Robert Riggle, 712 Cross Street, Lodi. Mr. Riggle explained that he owned one of the properties in the subject area. He went on to describe the uses in the area and felt that the proposed rezoning was appropriate. He stated that he had seen Mr. Fletcher's building proposal and that he had no objection to what he was planning.

Dave Gutierrez, 33 S. Crescent Street, Lodi. Mr. Gutierrez stated that he owns the property at 335 N. Stockton Street. He explained that the property currently contained a small house, which is only 430 sq. ft. The house is located at the rear of the property adjacent to the alley and is too small to make it attractive for most renters. He felt that a larger unit would be more attractive to families. He explained that it would not be cost effective to tear down the existing house and replace it with only a single-family house; however, by replacing it with a duplex, the project would make better economic sense. He requested the Planning Commission's approval for the rezoning.

Maime Starr, Facilities Planning Director for LUSD. Ms. Starr explained that the School District was neutral on the proposal and was neither in favor or opposed to the applicant's request. Her only concern was the potential impacts that additional residential units might create on the LUSD. She explained that on any General Plan amendments which propose to increase the number of residential units, the School District would like to have a signed agreement with each of the property owners. The agreement would contain language stating that the property owners were willing to pay a school impactation fee, which would be higher than the standard rate, for any new residential unit constructed. She noted that it would not effect any existing units and would only be paid, if and when, a property owner decided to add additional units to their property. Because of the short time-frame, the District was not able to secure the impactation fee agreements from all of the individual property owners. She was present to request a delay in the approval of the project until they could secure the signed agreements.

The Planning Commission questioned Ms. Starr on the difference between the standard school impact fees and the fees being requested as part of the signed agreements. Ms. Starr stated that the prevailing rate for construction in existing areas was between $1.70 and $1.80 per square foot. The rate on the agreements was $2.91, the same as new residential construction in newly developed areas of the City. The Commission asked whether the Planning Commission could make the signing of the LUSD Impactation Fee Agreements a condition of the General Plan approval. Ms. Starr stated that this was acceptable since the School District did not want to unduly delay the approval of the project. They would want the General Plan approval subject to the School District being able to obtain these signed agreements from all of the property owners affected by the rezoning. The Commission asked what would happen if one or two of the property owners refused to sign. Ms. Starr stated that in that case, the LUSD would probably oppose the General Plan amendment and rezoning.

Bob Johnson, Member of the Parks & Recreation Commission. He was concerned about placing additional living units in an area that was heavily utilized by various City recreational facilities. This included two softball complexes and the City's Grape Bowl. He noted that in the future, the City may wish to use these facilities for a variety of recreational uses which could impact adjacent residential properties. He was concerned that adding more residence to area would result in more complaints to the City regarding noise and traffic. He requested that the Planning Commission take this fact into consideration.

The Commission directed additional questions to staff, primarily regarding the number of units that might potentially be built on these lots. Community Development Director Bartlam explained that in most cases, no more than two or three units could be built on each of the existing lots and it would be possible that some of the lots would remain as single-family as they currently exist. As far as someone buying up all the properties and combining them into one large parcel, and constructing a 20 or 30-unit complex, it was theoretically possible but not very likely.

Several of the Commissioners expressed some concern about the proposed request; however, they acknowledged the "island nature" of the subject properties and the need for additional affordable living units in Lodi. The Planning Commission then took the following actions:

Action on the Negative Declaration

A motion was made by Commissioner Stafford, Commissioner McGladdery second, to unanimously approve the certification of the Negative Declaration as adequate environmental documentation on the proposed project.

RE: Proposed re-zoning of 300 block North Stockton St. from R-1 to RMD.

At one property owner's request, you will be asked on December 18 to re-zone the 300 block of North Stockton Street to allow a duplex to be built on every parcel in that block.

Our history has taught us that higher density housing in eastside neighborhoods has resulted in horrendous crime rates, lower property values, and a flight by owners of single-family homes. For years, destructive zoning practices allowed Lodi's eastside to be used as a dumping ground. Thankfully, recent city councils have and are making a heroic effort to reverse past practices which have destroyed the quality of life for over 20,000 Lodi residents.

At Mr. Bartlan's request, Colleen Dixon, Virginia Lahr, and myself met to discuss the proposed zoning change. We have a high regard for Mr. Bartlan's professionalism and expertise. However, those of us who have lived with the effects of overcrowding feel this proposed zoning will destroy one more eastside neighborhood.

Before you make your decision, I hope you'll have an opportunity to drive through the other medium and high density areas listed on the attached police summary. Swain and Lambert are all duplexes - exactly what is proposed for North Stockton Street. Do we really want more of this?

Many progressive cities are beginning to view a mix of duplexes, multiple units, and single family homes as good planning for healthy neighborhoods. That describes the 300 Block N. Stockton as it is today. As you'll see from the police report, it's now a quiet residential area, and reasonably safe for those who use the ball diamonds and the Grape Bowl.

We feel the Grape Bowl will become a major asset to Lodi in the future. Tourists would not feel safe parking in a crime-ridden area. Even though two parking spaces per unit would be required, tenant and visitor parking will still clog the street.

For the past four years, Lodi citizens and their government have struggled to reclaim Lodi's eastside. Thanks to City Councils, city staff, and citizen volunteers, it is working! If we stay on course, one day we can be proud of ALL parts of Lodi. I implore you - please don't nullify our joint efforts. Please don't create one more eastside ghetto.

Cordially,
